Have you ever ... ? (present perfect 3)

We use the present perfect (have been / have had / have played etc.) when we talk about a time from the past until now - for example, a person's life:

HAVE YOU EVER BEEN TO JAPAN? time from the past until now past

(= he went to Spain but now he is back)

- "Have you been to France?' (in your life) 'No, I haven't.'
- I've been to Canada but I haven't been to the United States.
- Mary is an interesting person. She has had many different jobs and has lived in many places.
- I've seen that woman before but I can't remember where.
- How many times has Brazil won the World Cup?
- 'Have you read this book?' 'Yes, I've read it twice.' (twice = two times)
- present perfect + ever (in questions) and never: B
 - "Has Ann ever been to Australia?" 'Yes, once.' (once = one time)
 - 'Have you ever played golf?' 'Yes, I often play golf.'
 - My mother has never travelled by air.
 - I've never ridden a horse.
 - 'Who is that man?' 'I don't know. I've never seen him before.'

Compare:

- I can't find Susan. Where has she gone? (= Where is she now?)
- Oh, hello Susan! I was looking for you. Where have you been?

(= he is in Spain now)
